

Prof. Karin Holzwarth

Dipl.-Music Therapist and Dipl.-Music Teacher

is professor and head of the Institute of Music Therapy, University of Music and Drama, Hamburg. Teaching focus on body awareness in music therapy. Recent program coordinator of the Department of Music Therapy at the Jugendmusikschule Hamburg. Experienced in child and adolescent music therapy for 25 years, in educational settings, psychosomatics, coma vigil and children hospice work. Research focus on participation and sensitivity to discrimination towards marginalised or vulnerable groups. Member of the Federal Committee for Inclusion of the Association of German Music Schools, advisor in the Federal Board Music Therapy at Music Schools.

Dorothee von Moreau, Dr. rer. medic., Music Therapist, Psychologist and Psychological Psychotherapist, is professor and head of the Institute of Music Therapy at University of Music and Drama, Hamburg. Teaching focus on theory and research in music therapy. Recent program coordinator, dean of study and coordinator of the teaching clinic for music therapy and dance movement therapy at SRH University in Heidelberg. Music Therapist in the fields of psychiatry, psychosomatics, children & adolescent psychiatry. Research focus on music therapy assessments, professional advisory board of the German Association for Music Therapy, Vice-President of the International Society for Music in Medicine (ISMM).